Texaco Star

by Margo Haas

Directed by Ron Newell

September 16 - October 9, 2011

Opening our season is a story by Westlake resident, Margo Haas, of unexpected friendship between a young mechanic and a couple stranded in a weathered gas station in St. Elmo, Illinois. It is an intimate tale of human connection and coming to terms with life's choices.

A Christmas Cactus

by Eliot Byerrum

Directed by Douglas A. Farren

November 11- December 11, 2011

No performance on Thanksgiving, Nov. 24

Private investigator Cactus O'Riley and her secretary Fred are about to close up shop on Christmas Eve when they are confronted by two fugitives in search of a dead detective named Jake Marley. Comedy, mystery and romance converge in this uplifting contemporary Christmas tale where goodwill and justice triumph.

A Murder, A Mystery & A Marriage

Book and lyrics by Aaron Posner

Music by James Sugg

Adapted from a short story by Mark Twain

Directed by Douglas A. Farren

Music Direction by Connie Baltitas

Auditions: Dec. 5 & 6 at 7:30 p.m.

March 9 - April 1, 2012

A first-class melodrama. Shy Hugh Gregory loves Mary Gray, the prettiest girl in Deer Lick, Missouri. A mysterious stranger enters to win Mary's love, and a disinheritance is announced, and topping that, a murder is committed. It's an evening package of romance, comedy, mystery and music.

Rounding Third

by Richard Dresser

Directed by Tyson Rand

Auditions: February 6 & 7 at 7:30 p.m.

May 4 - May 27, 2012

Fatherhood and baseball are entwined in this funny story of two Little League coaches -- one who is a win-at-all-costs veteran and the other a corporate-executive newcomer. They make an uneasy alliance for the benefit of the team, and the two men battle over how to lead it.
